The Band

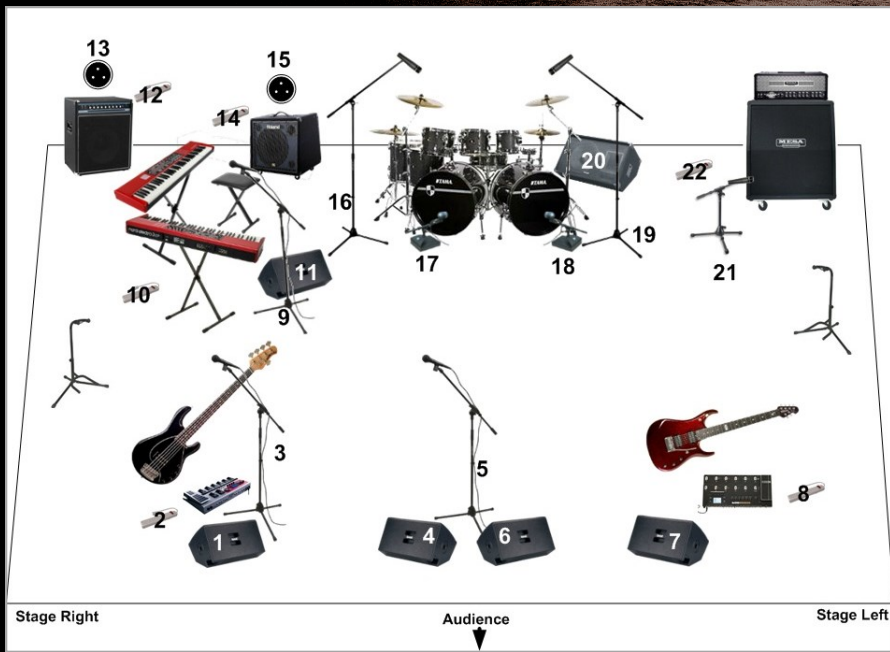

Silent Nightmare makes driving, metal-infused alternative rock songs that strive to be as catchy as they are dazzling. Tara Duhan's ethereal bel canto soprano floats, weaves and penetrates through deftly-arranged layers of textured aggression. Formed in early 2011 by Tara with drummer Tim Araujo, the last year has seen more focus on songwriting and cohesion, guided by the contributions of guitarist Aleks Jevtic, bassist Sonja Petrovic, and keyboardist Julian Berke. Currently, they are planning their next tour in 2013.
